Private Greer Helps Get Nazi

WITH THE SECOND ARMOR DIVISION IN FRANCE—The warning received from an aged Frenchman as a column of elements of an armored infantry regiment moved through Buais kept a German paratrooper from passing the information back to his headquarters. For it was the warning by the Frenchman which gave Master Sergeant Orval Belcher a chance to mow the German down with his light machine gun from his peep.

Sgt. Belcher, who resides at 1028 Louisiana avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana, was in the peep leading the column as it reached the center of Buais at night. A Frenchman came along up to the peep shouting: "Boche paratrooper."

With them to their second Quebec conference in 13 months the President and Prime Minister brought their top-flight military men and legions of staff assistants for discussions of the world's greatest combat teams.

Child Eats 70 Pink Pills

Mrs. Clifford Hayes, 305 North Summit avenue, who left last week for Denver, Colo., to join her husband who is stationed at Lowry Field, was badly frightened Saturday when she went to the bedroom of their home there to find her two-year-old daughter, Patricia Ann, standing in her little bed "eating" pills.

Mrs. Hayes had put Patricia Ann to bed for the night, when she seemed so unusually quiet, her mother went back to the room a few minutes later to see if she was all right. The little girl stood up in her bed, pulled open a dresser drawer and had eaten seventy of the pink pills, thinking they were candy. Smeared with the pink coating she laughed when her mother came in the door.

Mrs. Hayes, who is a stranger in Denver, didn't know what to do so she called the police. They came immediately and rushed the little girl to a hospital where she was given medical attention.

In a telephone conversation to her mother, Mrs. Verney Engholm, 314 North Summit avenue, here Sunday night, Mrs. Hayes said that Patricia Ann was getting along nicely and she expected to bring her home today.

French Forces From the South Occupy Dijon

Americans Close Pocket on Nazis Who Fought Desperately

By Sid Feder

ROME, Sept. 11.—(AP)—French forces from the south after a 24-hour battle have occupied the city of Dijon, 150 miles southeast of Paris and 55 miles from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's troops in northern France, it was announced tonight.

At the same time American troops of Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's Seventh army moving up from the Mediterranean reached the outskirts of Vesoul, 55 miles to the northeast and only 75 miles south of Nancy where the Third army is attacking the Moselle line.

In pushing 20 miles north of Besancon across the Doubs valley to Vesoul the Americans closed a pocket of Germans who fought desperately until the last moment to hold the road network leading into Dijon.

Dijon, a city of 96,000, is at the western edge of the Saone valley, and Vesoul is 30 miles west of the Belfort Gap where French forces were meeting bitter opposition.

Advance To Rougemont

American units of Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch's Seventh army advanced to Rougemont, 25 miles southwest of the historic gateway into southwest Germany, but French troops, inching their way through the Jura mountains along the Swiss frontier, met desperate German rearguard resistance.

An Allied headquarters announcement said the French were fighting near the village of Blamont, 16 miles south of Belfort and 36 airline miles from German frontier.

The Nazis, making a desperate stand to keep the Belfort Gap lifeline open, found themselves in a narrowing bottleneck with the French to the south and the Americans to the west at Rougemont.

Sentence Of Death In Plot To Kill Hitler

Former Leipzig Mayor Described As Ringleader

LONDON, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Dr. Karl Friedrich Goerdeler, former Leipzig mayor described as a ringleader in the abortive July 20 plot to kill Adolf Hitler, has been sentenced to death along with six other "politicians," Berlin radio disclosed today.

A number of alleged conspirators, including high army officers, already have been killed. The 60-year-old Goerdeler had been designated by the plotters to become chancellor of a new German government which would have sought peace, the broadcast said.

The six convicted with Goerdeler were named as Ulrich Von Hassell, former Nazi ambassador to Rome; Count Wolf Hendrick Von Helldorf, former police chief in Berlin; Trott Zu Solz, former secretary in the ministry of foreign affairs; Paul Lejeune-Jung, a former deputy; Wilhelm Leuschner, former Hessian minister of the interior; Josef Wimmer, an attorney.

Goerdeler, former German minister of economics, "worked out the plans of treason and it was he who formed the bridge between the militarist traitors and political conspirators," the German news agency Transocean said.

Price On His Head

Goerdeler was captured after a price of a million marks (about $400,000) had been placed on his head.

The conspirators intended immediately after the assassination to set up a dictatorship "which would have immediately capitulated to the enemies of Germany," the agency said.

"Leuschner played with the idea of overthrowing Goerdeler and making himself Reichs chancellor," the agency added.

Von Hassell was reported to have confessed that he knew since the spring of 1943 that an attempt was to be made on Hitler's life. Wimmer was "violently opposed to Hitler and National Socialist Germany and continually pressed Goerdeler to speed up the action," Transocean asserted.

Carried Secrets

Zu Stolz was said to have made frequent trips to Germany "for the purpose of discussing German military secrets with enemies of Germany," and all seven of the accused were declared to have had "connections with foreign powers since 1942."

Count Helldorf was described as a liaison man between Goerdeler's political group and the military faction led by Col. Gen. Ludwig Beck, one of the generals reported to have paid the death penalty for complicity in the plot. Helldorf as head of the Berlin police directed many of the repressive actions against the Jews in the early days of the Hitler regime.

Local Church Extends Call

The membership of the First Baptist church Sunday extended a call to Dr. Thomas W. Craxton, who preached there the previous Sunday, to serve as pastor of the local church to replace Dr. R. W. Leazer, who has accepted a pastorate in Moberly.

Although it is indefinite whether he will accept the call, an answer is expected some time this week.

Inquiry Into Situation of Secretary Pay

Cole County Prosecutor Will Make Investigation

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 11.—(AP)—Curtis Quimby, Cole county prosecutor, declared today that "I'm convinced now that an investigation of the whole situation of secretary hire in the Missouri senate should be made."

Quimby said he would make the investigation himself.

Quimby said he talked today with State Sen. H. B. Hart of Versailles, a Republican, but would not disclose what Hart told him.

"I'm going to start investigating by myself and go as far as I can until I need help. Then I may ask for a grand jury, or some other kind of assistance," Quimby said.

With several senators among office holders converging on the capital for platform conventions of both parties tomorrow, Quimby said "I hope to see more of them today."

Started From Miller Case

Quimby's inquiry arose over a statement by Ruth Riemenschneider, 19-year-old former secretary to State Sen. George H. Miller, Sedalia Republican, that Miller took part of her state pay check. Miss Riemenschneider declined to discuss her accusations with Quimby.

Miller, Republican candidate for attorney general, said the girl "understood" when she was hired during the 1943 legislature, that she would get $100 a month and the rest of the $150 a month check would go to a girl in Sedalia "to do the balance of my senate work."

After Miller declared that "other senators did as I did," J. E. (Buck) Taylor of Chillicothe, Democratic candidate for attorney general, urged Quimby, a Republican, to make an investigation.

TODAY ON THE War Fronts

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The British radio said today that Russian army patrols "have been operating on German soil for the past 36 hours, after crossing the Sisupe river." CBS heard the broadcast.

Devastating U. S. carrier raids from Palau to the Philippines were carried into the fifth consecutive day, Axis broadcasts reported today.

With land-based aircraft striking at Formosa to the north, and Halmahera and the Celebes to the south, a crescent shaped bomb line is being blasted around the Japanese-occupied American territory.

CHUNGKING, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters indicated today that Japanese forces pushing down the Hunan-Kwangsi railway already had crossed the border into Kwangsi province and reached Chuanhsien, only 67 miles from Kweilin, nub of South China's defense system.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—(AP)—American reconnaissance planes from an armored division are reported to have landed on German soil, Blue Network Correspondent Harold Peters broadcast from London today.

Peters did not say whether the planes landed in force or were unopposed. If the latter were the case, it would indicate that certain stretches of the German frontier are not protected against the Allied advance.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—(AP)—American fighters escorting 1,000 heavy bombers attacking Nazi oil plants in Germany today shot down 130 enemy planes in the greatest air battle ever fought over the Reich between American fighters and the Luftwaffe.

Only yesterday, the American fighters destroyed 125 German planes but 119 were caught on the ground in Western Germany. Today's bag made the two day total 255.

American losses were not immediately tabulated. A spokesman of the U. S. Eighth Air Force said the 130 planes destroyed still was an incomplete count, but already a record bag for fighters. German planes destroyed by the bombers still were to be added.

U. S. Forces Hurl Shells Into German Soil for First Time in History

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Sept. 11.—(AP)—British armor burst into Holland today.

The penetration was made 14 miles north of the broken Albert canal defense line in Belgium.

The American First army fought its way into the first barrage zones and minefield of the Siegfried line within ten miles of German soil east of Liege.

The American advance was in the tiny Duchy of Luxembourg.

By James M. Long

LONDON, Sept. 11.—(AP)—British troops were reported striking into Holland today in a sweep toward the north end of the Siegfried line after a mass slaughter of Germans. The U. S. First army punched to less than 10 miles from the German border at two places, and captured the capital of the tiny Duchy of Luxembourg.

The Americans, hurling shells into German soil for the first time in history, were reported bombarding Aachen, the German border city and troop concentration point guarded by Siegfried line forts running on both the east and west sides.

Radio broadcasting from Brussels said the British had crossed the Netherlands frontier for the first time "although earlier reports put them there last week."

The crossing apparently was on the road to Eindhoven from one of the British bridgeheads 25 to 35 miles east of Antwerp.

An Associated Press dispatch from the British front said the British had stormed across the Schelde-Meuse canal, last water barrier before the Dutch frontier, after a large-scale three-day battle around Bourg-Leopold and Bechtel north of the Albert canal in which 12,000 prisoners were taken and more Germans killed in one day than any time since the 200-mile march from Normandy.

The Schelde-Meuse canal is only two miles from the Dutch frontier where the road runs to Eindhoven.

Two Crossings

The crossing of the Schelde-Meuse canal was at Neerpelt after an eight-mile thrust, and the Dutch border was said to have been crossed at the tiny village of Degroote.

Premier Pieter Gerbrandy announced last week that the British had reached Breda in Holland, but the patrols apparently withdrew.

The Americans were nearest Germany at points 70 miles apart. Luxembourg, a coal-iron center of 58,000 fell to a U. S. column driving through the little stepping stone Duchy on a 10-mile assault front.

This column built up a strong left shoulder for the American Third army's battle for Metz, 35 miles to the south. The units moving through the Duchy had advanced to within 10 miles of the Saar border of Germany and were within 25 miles of the German cities of Saarburg and Trier.

To the north other U. S. First army units were within 8½ miles of the German and Dutch frontiers and had linked with the British Second army in preparation for a massive assault on the northern portion of the Siegfried line.

The Stephens college club met for a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. D. R. Bulmer, wife of Lieut. Bulmer, at her home 235½ South Quincy avenue, Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. Fred Lange as assisting hostess.

This was the first meeting of the new year and the president, Mrs. Oscar DeWolf, presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Lange, program chairman, introduced the speaker of the afternoon, First Lieut. Ernest C. Ford, Troop Carrier pilot, who holds the Command's unofficial record for the greatest number of combat missions flown.

Lieut. Ford's Troop Carrier squadron carried entire divisions of troops over the Owen Stanley mountain range during the Buna campaign, flying part of the time without fighter protection. "When the Japs hopped up," he said, "We would scatter and fly low. They didn't do us much damage."

Going to Australia in October, 1942, as a staff sergeant pilot, the lieutenant was commissioned overseas. His 364 combat missions in the Buna, Papua and New Guinea campaigns have earned him the Distinguished Flying Cross with five oak leaf clusters, the Air Medal with one cluster, the Asiatic-Pacific campaign ribbon with two stars, and a War Department citation device awarded to his entire 374th Troop Carrier Group, probably the most decorated unit in the Army Air Forces.

Lieut. Ford gave an interesting and informative talk on his experiences in the South Pacific and told of his friendship with the natives. In one instance he said a Head-hunter assisted in the capture of a number of Japanese.

He stressed the importance of writing to the men overseas saying it was the greatest of all morale builders.

Lieut. Ford showed snapshots taken in New Guinea and exhibited an actual Japanese flag which had been taken in battle by an Australian officer and was given to him by the officer.

"During my stay in Australia and New Guinea, I met many pilots who had been trained at Sedalia Army Air Field," the lieutenant said. "I'd heard so much about the place that though I had never seen it until I arrived in June, I felt as though I were coming home."

Lieut. Ford, who is a flight instructor in the 61st Troop Carrier Wing at the base, now resides with Mrs. Ford at 1616 South Kentucky avenue.

Members of the Stephens college club who were present at the opening meeting were: Mrs. Olive Penquite, Mrs. Sid Condict, Mrs. J. B. Kyd, Mrs. A. R. Beach, Mrs. Oscar DeWolf, Mrs. George Chambers, Mrs. L. J. Banner, Mrs. C. E. Van Horn, Mrs. Ruth Riley, Miss Marion Keens and Miss Rowena Patterson.

Special guests were Mrs. E. C. Ford, wife of the speaker, Miss Dorothy Edwards, graduate of Stephens' college who will this year attend Baylor university and Mrs. F. H. Peck, who is a member of the Stephens' college club in Jefferson City and will now be affiliated with the Sedalia club.

Mrs. Verney Engholm, 314 North Summit avenue, entertained Saturday afternoon at a party in honor of the seventh birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Beverly Jean.

Games were played outside during the afternoon after which the little guests were invited into the home where refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake were served.

Guests were Arthur Smith, Garnet Walters, Faye Pierce, Etta Reed, Jimmy Seigel, Maudie Reed, Eddie Dorcy, Wanda Gehlken, Faye Walters, Billy Arnold, Helen Reed, Anita Boettcher, Carolyn Napier, Jackie Reed, Mikie Seigel, Mrs. V. A. Seigel and Mrs. T. A. Decker.

Mrs. Engholm was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Seigel.

GIRL SCOUT

The Council of the Girl Scouts of Sedalia is beginning a campaign to recruit women of this community to serve as scout leaders. That such are necessary surely goes without saying. In the stress and struggle of life during wartime, it is all too easy to forget that the children of our community need leadership and instruction. The leadership and instruction provided by the Girl Scout organization complements that received in home and school. It is extra-curricular, and has its own particular importance.

Mrs. A. A. Studebaker is anxious to contact those women in Sedalia who are interested in our future citizens. Please call Mrs. Studebaker, Scout Commissioner, and discuss with her the facts governing the leadership of Girl Scout troops. The number is 3898.

J. N. Jones Is Now Captain

John Neal Jones, former Sedalia, has been promoted from a first lieutenant to a captain, according to an announcement by the War Department. While here his parents, Captain and Mrs. Chris Jones, resided at 1112½ West Third street.

His father at the time they resided in Sedalia was connected with construction and supervision of C. C. Camps in this area. Just before leaving Sedalia about four years ago, he was promoted to a major, and recently was promoted to a lieutenant colonel. He is stationed at Ft. Reno, near El Reno, Okla.

Capt. Jones was graduated from Smith-Cotton high school and attended school at the Central Missouri State Teachers college in Warrensburg.

Yanks Regain Hold On Lead For Pennant

Yanks, Detroit And Browns All Divide In Doubleheader Games

By Joe Reichler
Associated Press Sports Writer

Winning the close ones has enabled the New York Yankees to take possession of the top rung in the hot American League scramble. Including yesterday's nightcap 4-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox, the McCarthy-men have won 22 one-run decisions against 18 such defeats. Of their 13 extra-inning tilts, the Yankees have taken seven.

The Yanks had temporarily lost their first-place hold to the Detroit Tigers when they dropped the opener to Rookie Clem Dreisewer and the Red Sox 3-2. By winning the second, the Yankees regained the lead as both the Tigers and the St. Louis Browns divided their twin-bills, leaving the Bengals still a half game behind and the Browns in third place, one game away. The Red Sox are three lengths off the pace.

The Tigers have done even better than the Yankees. Steve O'Neill's men have captured 2 one-run games while losing only 11, and have annexed eight of their 11 extra-inning contests.

But for their poor showing in overtime games, the Browns would still be leading the league. Yesterday's 3-2, 11-inning defeat by the White Sox in the nightcap after having won the opener, 6-2, kept the Browns from deadlocking the lead. It marked their 12th extra inning loss this year compared to only six won. They've dropped 23 one-run affairs, winning only 17.

Hal Newhouser spun a four-hitter against the Cleveland Indians for his 24th triumph as Detroit won 5-0. The Tribe shelled Dizzy Trout from the mound to win the aftermath, 7-4.

Nelson Potter became the first Brownie hurler to win 15 games when he held the White Sox to six hits in the opener, winning 6-2. In the nightcap a single by Jimmy Webb and Relief Pitcher Orval Grove's triple won for Chicago 3-2.

In the other American League twin-bill the Washington Senators twice defeated the Philadelphia Athletics 2-1 and 8-2.

Mort Cooper became the first pitcher to win 21 games in the National League as he hurled the St. Louis Cardinals to a 4-2 win after the Chicago Cubs, behind Paul Erickson's three-hit pitching, shut out the Red Birds 9-0.

Cincinnati divided a pair of games with Pittsburgh. The Pirates thwarted Bucky Walters' bid for his 21st victory by winning 7-5. The Reds took the second 2-0 behind Arnold Carter. Brooklyn and Philadelphia split, the Dodgers winning the opener, 8-4, and the Phils taking the second, 3-2. The New York Giants defeated the Boston Braves, 10-4, in the day's only single contest.

Extra Inning Game Is Won By Merchants

"Lefty Hall" Green Pitches 3-Hit Ball For a 2 to 1 Score

"Lefty Hall" Green bested Jim Westhus in a thrilling pitchers battle which went 12 innings by a score of 2 to 1 and the Sedalia Merchants took their second extra inning game by beating Marshall before a large crowd Sunday afternoon at Liberty park.

Ray Morris delivered the game winning blow scoring Manager Nichols from second base to win the game. It was the second game in succession that Morris has scored Nichols for the winning run.

The Marshall team was the first to score when Brown was walked, moved to second on an infield out and scored on Smith's single to center field. The Sedallians filled the bases in the first inning but Westhus pitched himself out with the aid of some poor base running by the locals.

The locals tied the score in their half of the fourth inning. Nichols drew a base on balls, stole second, Morris walked and Cridder was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases. Weller than grounded to McKee and Nichols scored.

From then on it was three up and three down until the first half of the 11th when Demetz led off with a double into right field, but Green bore down and retired the side without a score.

In the last half of the 12th Ellsworth grounded out to McKee, Woolford fanned, but Westhus again walked Nichols who promptly stole second and scored on Morris' game winning hit into right field.

Ruddy Thomas, young Legion player started at short for the locals, while Ellsworth made several fine fielding plays. But the best play of the game went to Livengood to Green with the pitcher covering first base which drew rounds of applause from the large crowd.

"Lefty" Green who is rapidly developing into a first class pitcher is enjoying a successful run of scoreless innings. With the 11 scoreless innings Sunday he now has pitched 34 innings in succession and allowed but one run, almost four complete games. This is his first season with the Merchants although he worked several games last year in relief role.

Next Sunday the Merchants journey to the Sedalia Army Air Field where they will meet the Gliders for the second time this season.

Nazi Soldiers Not So Rough

WITH THE 80TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN FRANCE, Sept. 11.—(P)—Nazi soldiers apparently aren't so rough and tough as the Goebbels' propaganda machine would have us believe.

Lt. Schuyler Reed, of 507 Kendall street, Sikeston, Missouri, in searching 21 prisoners, found 1 can of meat, 1 can of sardines, a piece of black bread—and (whistle!) two articles of silk lingerie and several pairs of silk stockings!

Next Week in the Garden

Bacterial Canker of Tomatoes
Bacterial canker is a disease which is causing considerable loss of tomatoes.

On the plant the first symptom is wilting of the margins of the leaflets of the older leaves. This wilting usually appears first on the leaflets on only one side of the leaf. As the margins dry the leaflets curl upward. Later these leaves become brown, wither and die, but still remain attached to the stems. The plant itself often shows a lop-sided development. As the disease develops the pith in the stem is easily separated from the woody portion, and the pith becomes yellow and mealy in appearance and cavities form within the stems. Later the destruction of the tissues extends to the outer surface of the stems, forming open cankers, which give the disease its name.

The disease appears on the fruit as small raised, snow-white spots, $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ inch in diameter. The centers of these spots later break open and become brown and roughened. The white color persists as a halo about the margin and produces the birds-eye spots, which are caused by rain washing the bacteria from open cankers to the fruit, do not extend deeply into the flesh.

Most of the serious outbreaks of bacterial canker in the field can be traced to contaminated seed or soil. The bacteria can live over for at least two years in the soil. After the disease appears there is no spray or similar control which is effective. The successful control for bacterial canker, therefore, is one of prevention. This disease is unlikely to occur if clean seed is planted in clean soil, which will result in disease-free plants. These plants should then be set in soil which is free of the disease. If possible, tomatoes should not be planted on the same soil more than once in five years to avoid contamination with this disease from the field.

Grow A Soil Building Crop In Your Garden

With very few exceptions, every garden this time of year contains an area which is vacant. The area has produced early crops, but the entire plot is not needed to grow the fall crops. The universal need of the gardens in Missouri is for the addition of larger quantities of organic matter. A very effective way of providing some organic matter is to plant a green manure crop on the portion of the garden which is not now being used. Inoculated soybeans, cowpeas or vetch make excellent green manure crops, which if planted now, would have sufficient time to make vigorous growth before frost and thus produce some fine green manure which could be plowed under on that area this fall.

Burn Old Cabbage Stalks

"Cabbage Yellows" is one of the worst diseases with which Missouri vegetable growers have to deal. It prevents many cabbage heads from developing properly, and where the disease is very bad, it often causes the partially formed head to rot and fall off the stalk. Many areas are so badly infested with this disease that ordinary non-resistant varieties of cabbage cannot be grown on them.

When this disease becomes established in the soil, there is no soil treatment known which will get rid of it. In those areas, therefore, where the disease has been found, it is wise for the growers to take every precaution to avoid contamination of their ground with it.

At planting time only sturdy, vigorous, disease-free plants, preferably those grown locally or at home, should be used. At the close of the growing season, the precaution of pulling up all the old stalks and leaves left from this year's crop and burning them should be followed.

By thus burning any of the remaining portions of the cabbage stalks, the grower is doing his best to prevent the spread of cabbage yellows in his area by destroying the portions of the plant which might be contaminated with the disease.

Observe Onions in Storage

At this time of year onions should be harvested, cured, and in storage. It is well, also, to inspect all the onions to make sure they are keeping. At this time, those that were injured in harvest, or those which had thick, fleshy necks and therefore not suited for storage, may be detected.

Removal of onions which are not going to keep should be done now. Bermuda onions do not store over a long period, therefore this variety, as well as those which are showing signs of spoiling, should be used.

The storage place should be checked carefully and if there are signs of decay of the sound onions, steps should be taken to move them to a storage which is dry and which provides ample ventilation.

Leave Asparagus Tops Stand

As the time of year approaches to clean up the old plant refuse in the portion of the garden which has produced the early crop, the tendency is, in many instances, to want to cut the tops off of the asparagus. This practice is harmful to the next year's crop and also to the roots.

The tops of the asparagus manufacture food which is stored up in the roots for next year's production and further development of the roots themselves. Therefore, if these tops are removed before they have completed their work of the year, the maximum amount of food cannot be stored and the roots cannot make their greatest development. The tops, therefore, should be allowed to stand until the end of the season when they become brown and dead before they are removed.

Instructions For Mailing

Mail Packages to Overseas, September 15 to October 15

Dates for Christmas mail to the armed forces overseas will be from September 15 to October 15, and parcels should be marked "Christmas Parcel," families and friends of servicemen are reminded again today.

Christmas packages should not be presented for mailing before September 15, a week from tomorrow, Edward P. Mullaley, postmaster, has warned. Any parcels for the army presented before that date will be subject to the requirement for a written request from the soldiers to whom they are addressed.

A Limit On Parcels

During the stipulated Christmas mailing period no request from the addressee is required, but no more than one parcel each week may be mailed by the same person to the same addressee.

The weight and size limit of overseas Christmas parcels is unchanged. The present weight limit is five pounds and the package must be no longer than fifteen inches and thirty-six inches in combined length and girth.

The War and Navy departments have recommended a "blacklist" of articles for Christmas packages. Intoxicants, inflammable materials, including lighter fluid, poisons, explosives and perishable matter are prohibited.

Food and clothing are not needed by the armed forces. Soft candies are unsuitable for shipping. Instead of sending currency or coins, money orders are recommended. Money order service is unavailable to the members of the merchant marine, however.

Secure Wrapping Important
Packages must be in substantial containers, wrapped in heavy paper, and tied with strong cord. Postoffice officials have stated. Addresses should be legible and complete. They should be typewritten or written in ink, never pencil.

Army packages cannot be insured, but small parcels up to 8 ounces, sealed and prepaid at the first-class rate, may be registered. Packages to the naval forces may be insured or registered. Insurance and registry service is not available for mail addressed to merchant seamen.

Christmas cards to the naval forces may be sent in unsealed envelopes at the rate of 1¢ per card for 2 ounces. Greeting cards to the army, however, must be in sealed envelopes, paid at the first-class rate.

Now Is Time To Make Sauer Kraut

On a cold wintry day a bowl of sauerkraut will not only be tasty, but nutritious, and now is the time to make it.

Cabbage for kraut should be shredded fine, that means shreds not more than $\frac{1}{4}$ of an inch wide. Mix 2 ounces of salt to 5 pounds cabbage by weight. Pack the cabbage firmly into the jars and store where the temperature is about 86 degrees Fahrenheit. That is uncomfortably warm for a person, but ideal for the kraut. Fermentation should be completed in about 10 days and the kraut may be sealed and stored in a cool place. To be certain that the kraut will not turn dark or soft, it should be heated and processed for 5 minutes in a water bath.

Turnip sauerkraut may be made in the same way with the exception that it requires about twice as long as cabbage to complete fermentation. Turnip kraut should be made of the purple top variety and of turnips in good condition. Sauer Reuben as it is known adds nice variety to winter meals.

Two Trucks of Jars Being Used

Two truck loads of glass jars of various sizes were distributed to more than 100 families during the past week through the cooperation of the Pettis County Extension Service and the Sedalia Army Air Field.

Through the courtesy of Capt. A. B. Burke of the 4th Missouri Infantry, the Army building was used as a distribution center. The jars were unloaded there on Wednesday and Thursday. Friday the building was opened from 10 until 5 for those interested to come and get what they could use. By that evening about half the jars were gone. The remainder were taken in the next few days. These jars which otherwise would not have been used are now being put to good service in Pettis county.

Those helping to unload and distribute jars were Mrs. E. E. Campbell, Mrs. Roy Anderson, Virginia Lee Slusher, Dorothy Capps, Dorothy Bacon, Earl B. Hinken, Billy Rissler, Ralph Banning, Chas. and Billy Williams.

"Hoke" Smith Is Retiring

Boilermaker Has Served Missouri Pacific 48 Years

At a recent meeting of the Boilermaker craft local, tribute was paid to O. C. Smith, better known as "Hoke," who has retired from active service with the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Mr. Smith started his railroad career on the Burlington road where he served his time as a boilermaker apprentice. On August 1, 1910 he entered the employ of the Missouri Pacific where he has remained since. For the past 18 years he has worked as a lay-out in the boiler shop at the local shops. He also was a member of the Safety committee and was a member of the Missouri Pacific Booster band several years ago before it disbanded.

During the meeting several talks were made by members of the boilermaker craft, drawing attention to the service rendered by Mr. Smith. At the close of the meeting Mr. Smith was presented with a leather traveling bag, a leather billfold and a gold lodge button. Mr. Smith responded with a short talk thanking the members for their kindness toward him, and stating that after nearly 48 years of railroad service he felt the proper thing to do was to give a younger man a chance.

Mr. Smith is also in receipt of a very fine letter from L. W. Baldwin, president of the Missouri Pacific railroad, congratulating him for his loyal and efficient service and also informing him that his name had been placed on the Roll of Honor of the Missouri Pacific lines.

Mr. Smith will continue to make Sedalia his home, residing with Mrs. Smith at East Seventh street.

Shops and Rails

G. T. Callender mechanical superintendent for the Missouri Pacific, was at the shops Friday and Saturday on business.

Missouri Pacific locomotives 1705 and 9477 were returned to service last week after undergoing a general over-hauling at the local shops.

J. H. McQuiddy, general machine foreman, has returned to work after taking a two weeks' vacation.

T. M. O'Bannon, boilermaker helper, was at the company hospital in St. Louis last week for a physical check-up. He returned to work Thursday.

E. L. Ellsworth, clerk in the production department, is taking a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson have returned home from the state of Texas where they were called last week by the death of a relative. Mr. Johnson is a machinist at the local shops.

Supersergeant

After 30 years active service in the U. S. Army, 26 of them in the highest non-com rank, Master Sgt. Chester Stewart recently retired at Ft. Lewis, Wash. He is pictured above wearing, beside rank chevrons, 10 three-year-hitch hashmarks; four World War I overseas chevrons and an overseas strip from this war.

He has been off duty the past two months, part of which time he was a patient in the company hospital in St. Louis, has returned to his home here. He is considerable improved and expects to return to work in the near future.

W. P. Coe, machinist, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Bothwell hospital, has been removed to his home and is getting along satisfactorily.

At Conference In Springfield

Farm Leaders Hear Discussions On Varied Topics

Mrs. Ralph Dow, Home Economics Extension Council Chairman; Miss Elizabeth Scott, Farm Bureau Publicity Chairman; J. Walter Rissler, 4-H Council Chairman; Thomas J. Raines of the Farm Bureau Board; Dorothy Capps, Food Preservation Assistant; J. U. Morris, Pettis County Extension Agent; and Dorothy Bacon, Home Demonstration Agent, attended a district conference held September at Springfield, Missouri, at the Grace Methodist Church. There were 24 counties of the southwestern part of the state represented in this district. Miss Rena Jenkins of the University Extension Service presided over the morning session. After introductions, J. W. Burch, State Extension Director, spoke on "The Job Ahead in Agriculture." L. R. Whitfield of Jasper County and Mrs. Ralph Dow of Pettis County spoke on "As We See The Job," giving the farmers' viewpoints.

Then came adjournment for dinner which was served by the ladies of the church. During the noon hour the women held a session to consider and approve the "Standard of Achievement," at which Miss Amy Kelly, State Home Demonstration Leader, presided.

The afternoon session was presided over by F. E. Rogers, District Extension Agent. Discussion by the people of the following subject was held: "What Should Be Done To Meet The Problems of Agriculture by—1—Rural People, 2—Rural Leaders, 3—Extension Sponsoring Organization, 4—University of Missouri Agricultural Extension Service?" A balanced farming plan, a definite plan for home improvement and organized rural youth activities, were recommended.

A committee of four from this district was elected to join with committees from the four other districts in the State to make recommendations for further progress on the job ahead.

Arthur Hess
Arthur Hess, 63 years old, passed away suddenly at his home, 1402 East Fourth street, at 2:05 o'clock Sunday morning, following a heart attack he suffered shortly after midnight. He had apparently been in the best of health and had worked at the Missouri-Pacific shops all day Saturday, making no complaint of feeling ill until he was stricken shortly before his death.

Mr. Hess was born in Moniteau county, near California, January 7, 1881, the son of the late Ambrose and Mary Birdsong Hess. For the past seventeen years he had resided in Sedalia. He was a charter member of the War Dads organization here and took an active part in its affairs. He was a member of the Baptist church, having joined a Baptist church early in life near his birthplace.

In 1900 he was married to Miss Mary M. Clay at California, Mo. To this union ten children were born, all of whom survive except one son, Ambrose Hess, who died in 1916 at the age of eleven. His first wife preceded him in death in 1924.

He was married a second time to Mrs. Dora Breshers of Frisco, Mo., in 1926 and they moved to Sedalia, which has since been their home. To this union three children were born all of whom survive.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Dora Hess; three daughters and one granddaughter all of the home, Mrs. Stella Tye, Norma Hess and Ina Jean Hess and the granddaughter, Judy Marlene Tye; six daughters and three sons by his first marriage, Mrs. Henry Witt, Douglas, Wyo., Mrs. J. D. Shannon, Jefferson City; Mrs. Patrick Swillum, California, Mo.; Mrs. Otto Herman, St. Louis; Mrs. D. D. Armstrong, Sedalia; Mrs. Art Vinson, Sedalia; Oscar Hess, Grimes, Iowa; Arthur Hess, Jr., Mt. Vernon, Mo.; and T/S George W. Hess, stationed at Syracuse, N. Y.; five sisters, Mrs. Allee, Mrs. Walter Rohrbach, Mrs. Everett Wilson all of California, Mo.; Mrs. Gobbie Boehlen and Mrs. George McDowell, Clarksburg; two brothers, George Hess, California, Mo., and Jack Hess of the state of California. Eight grandchildren, besides the one mentioned above, also survive.

Funeral services will be held at the East Sedalia Baptist church at 1:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. Hattie Rice will officiate. Music will be by members of the church choir. Interment will be in the Allee cemetery northwest of California, Mo.
